Luna fashion company was founded in 1990 in Pozarevac as family business of mother and daughter. Elane and optimism has helped these brave women to start business in the living room of their apartment. However, this was enough only for the start, as Luna was growing from the first day, occupying more and more space and employing more and more skillfully and hardworking hands.

Two decades later, Luna is one of the leading regional fashion brands, well known for high quality female fashion apparel. Today, Luna employs more than 120 workers and same number of external associates, modern management team, creative designers and production on more than 3000 square meters. Besides chain of large distribution network in Serbia, Luna sells their products in Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Macedonia, Croatia, Slovenia, Norway, Netherlands, and distant Australia.
